THE CITY OF LONG BEACH TURNS TO BETHPAGE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION FOR FIRST PUBLIC ATM MACHINES

Bethpage, NY – June 23, 2016 - Almost two years since opening the first credit union in the City of Long Beach, Bethpage Federal Credit Union, New York State’s largest credit union, has installed six public ATMs throughout Long Beach, after being awarded the opportunity by the Long Beach City Council. These six public ATMs, a first for the City, are located on the Long Beach Boardwalk at National Blvd., at Edwards Drive and at Riverside Blvd., in addition to inside three public buildings including Long Beach City Hall, the Long Beach Recreation Center and the Long Beach Municipal Ice Arena. The public ATMs will allow the community to perform cash withdrawals only.

“Whether supporting our summer events or providing assistance to residents after Sandy, before the local branch was even open, Bethpage Federal Credit Union has been a major part of our community,” said City Councilman Scott J. Mandel. “Bethpage’s new ATMs, in convenient locations throughout the City, are making it even easier for folks to get cash when they need it while strolling the boardwalk or frequenting our great shops and restaurants.”

Bethpage opened its Long Beach branch – its 28th branch at the time - in June, 2014 located at 26 W. Park Avenue. Since that time, and prior, Bethpage has been an integral member of the Long Beach community, working hand in hand with City officials on numerous community-oriented programs including support of the City’s summer boardwalk events, as well actively working alongside City officials to help Long Beach rebuild and restore the many programs and facilities impacted by Hurricane Sandy.

“Bethpage is thrilled to continue to expand its presence in the unique seaside community of Long Beach following our long standing history with this great City,” said Wayne N. Grossé, President and CEO, Bethpage Federal Credit Union. “The addition of Bethpage ATMs throughout the City will help community residents and visitors secure cash where and when they need it – a convenience everyone can relate to.”

Plans are also underway by Bethpage to support local merchants with subsidized coupons which will also promote the City through a social media campaign. Details to be provided shortly.
