Family Service League Elects New Officers to Board -

Including the Election of Wayne N. Grossé, to Chair

Family Service League is proud to announce the election of officers to its Board of Directors, including the election of Wayne N. Grossé, President and CEO, Bethpage Federal Credit Union, to Chair.

"Family Service League is privileged to have a Board of Directors consisting of well-respected members of the Long Island corporate and civic communities, all of whom are assets to our organization. We thank our past officers for their service and are proud to welcome the incoming officers. Their expertise in business combined with their deep sense of integrity provides leadership and insight as FSL expands and prepares for the future," said Karen Boorshtein, FSL President & CEO.

"FSL Board Members are commitment to further strengthening the safety net of resources by providing quality, accessible social service programs which are available to thousands of underserved Long Island families and children."

"I am a proud supporter and member of The Family Service League which for over 90 years, has been helping touch many lives here on Long Island, said Wayne N. Grossé, President and CEO, Bethpage. "When challenges occur, Family Service League provides a lifeline to our community. I look forward to helping lead this vital organization to continue to make a difference."
